The First Statue of the Bloomingtondale Still-life series

The Bloomingtondale Commemorative Brick Program-Library

You're invited to buy a commemorative brick that will be permanently installed in the new Bloomingtondale Public Library Dominic Froio Memorial Garden surrounding the life size bronze statue. The statue, a mother and child sitting on a bench reading, is in place at the Bloomingtondale Public Library and was the first in the series in Bloomingtondale. The Statue was paid for entirely through the purchase of commemorative bricks which are placed in the walkway leading toward the statue.

All donations are tax deductible.

Become a part of Bloomingtondale's history through the purchase of a commemorative brick. For more information, call 630-671-5610.

Each brick holds three lines of type with 13 characters per line.
