

February 1981

Mr. Frank J. Helfers, 76, of 1215 Worth Avenue, Elgin, died Friday in his home. He was born June 23, 1904 in River Forest, the son of Henry and Frieda Helfers and had been employed as a machinist. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Betty Yakes of Rolling Meadows, 1 brother, Henry Helfers of Elmhurst, 2 sisters, Mrs. Martha Robaczewski and Rosa Helfers both of Schaumburg; 6 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Alma Keinapple; his parents, 2 brothers, August and Fred. Funeral services will be at 11 am Friday in the Elm Lawn Chapel, Elmhurst . Burial will be in the Elm Lawn Cemetery. There will be no visitation. Waite-Ross-Allanson Funeral Chapel, Elgin, is in charge of the arrangements.

---

Frank Helfers – Elgin

Frank J. Helfers, 76, of 121 S. Worth Ave., Elgin, died Friday in his home. He was born June 23, 1904, in River Forest, the son of Henry M. and Frieda Helfers and had been employed as a machinist. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Betty Yakes of Rolling Meadows; one brother, Henry Helfers of Elmhurst; two sisters, Mrs. Martha Robaczewski and Rosa Helfers, both of Schaumburg; six grandchildren and four great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Alma Kienapple; his parents and two brothers, August and Fred. Funeral services will be at 11 am Friday in the Elm Lawn Chapel, Elmhurst. Burial will be in Elm Lawn Cemetery. There will be no visitation. Wait-Ross-Allanson Funeral Chapel, Elgin, is in charge of arrangements.