

Walter Krumwiedie

Walter Krumwiedie, 77, of 148 N. Bloomingdale Rd., Bloomingdale, died Jan. 16, at Alexian Brother Medical Center. He is survived by his wife, Lucille, and a brother, Elmer of Park Ridge. A 53-year resident of Bloomingdale, Mr. Krumwiedie was known for his mechanical ability. During his life in the village he owned a gas station and an ice cream stand. Although he was born in Chicago, his father and grandfather came to Bloomingdale in 1882. Services were Friday at Martin Funeral Home, Roselle, and burial was in St. Paul Cemetery, Bloomingdale.

The Bloomingdale Star – Wednesday, January 24, 1979 p.18