

August 1942

Mr. Herman Lichthardt, 72, was found dead in his farm near Schaumburg a mile and a half north of Irving Park Boulevard on Roselle Road Saturday night. He is believed to have been dead for several days. Lichthardt lived alone and his death was discovered by a neighbor who called at the residence. State police were notified and patrolman Ralph Barry and Donald Barnes investigated. Born December 6, 1869 Lichthardt had lived in the Schaumburg area for many years. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Alma Freise, a son, Emil Lichthardt; 4 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild and 2 sisters, Mrs. Engel Nerge and Mrs. Louise Rohlwing who resides in Mount Prospect. The other survivor lives in Schaumburg. Funeral services will be held at 2 Thursday afternoon in the Schaumburg Lutheran Church the Rev. Martin Behling will officiate and burial will be in the Lutheran Cemetery.

Found Dead in Farm Home

Herman Lichthardt, 72, was found dead in his farm home near Schaumburg, a mile and a half north of Irving Park Boulevard on Roselle Road, Saturday night. He is believed to have been dead for several days. Lichthardt lived alone and his death was discovered by a neighbor who called at the residence. State police were notified and patrolman Ralph Barry and Don Barnes investigated. Born Dec. 6, 1869, Lichthardt had lived in the Schaumburg area for many years. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Alma Freise; a son, Emil Lichthardt; four grandchildren; one great grandchild and two sisters, Mrs. Engel Nerge and Mrs. Louise Rohlwing. Mrs. Rohlwing resides in Mt. Prospect and the other survivors live in Schaumburg. Funeral services will be held at 2 Tuesday afternoon in the Schaumburg Lutheran Church. The Rev. Martin Behling will officiate and burial will be in the Lutheran Cemetery.

Herman Lichthardt

Funeral services for Herman Lichthardt, 72, of Schaumburg, who was found dead in his home Saturday night, will be held at 2 Tuesday afternoon at the Schaumburg Lutheran Church. The Rev. Martin Behling will officiate and burial will be in the church cemetery.

Elgin Courier-News Monday, August 24, 1942