

1-1947

Mr. Herman Liehthardt, 69, lifelong resident and businessman in Ontarioville died at 4 Saturday afternoon in his home. He was born in Schaumburg August 1, 1887, the son of Fred and Sophia Liehthardt. He was in business in and around Ontarioville for 40 years first owning and operating a grocery and later a coal feed supply business. He retired 2 years ago because of ill health. On March 8, 1934 he married Christine Mallick of Chicago. He is survived by 2 brothers, Henry of Truman, Mn. and William of Elgin; 2 sisters, Mrs. Sam Meyer and Mrs. Henry Siems both of Roselle; a step-daughter, Betty Lee Mallick of Ontarioville, a step-son, Alexander Mallick of Dayton, Ohio and a step-grandson, Otto Schleip Jr., of Ontarioville. He was preceded in death by 3 sisters and a brother. He was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church of Ontarioville. Funeral services will be held Tuesday Afternoon at 1:30 from Conn Funeral Home and at 2 from Immanuel Lutheran Church in Ontarioville, the Rev. William Jiede officiating. Burial will be in Lake Street Memorial Park. Friends may call at the funeral home.