

Mrs. Ida Lilley

Mrs. Ida Lilley, mother of Orin Lilley, passed away Monday evening, Jan 23, 1922, at the Resthaven Sanitarium, Elgin, where she was being cared for due to her helpless condition brought about by paralysis. A final stroke of paralysis was the immediate cause of a giving way to an affliction of nearly twenty years duration. The funeral services were held at Kampp's chapel, Wheaton, on Thursday afternoon at 1:30. Dr. Smith T. Ford officiated. Interment was in Bloomingdale Cemetery.

Mrs. O.A. Lilly

Mrs. Ida Lilley died Monday, Jan. 23, at the age of 65 years, at Rest haven Sanitarium in Elgin, where she had been a patient for some months. Mrs. Lilley suffered a stroke of paralysis about 20 years ago, and has been an invalid confined to her bed, or chair, ever since. The family came here from Bloomingdale, and have made Wheaton their home continuously since that time. Mr. Lilley preceded his wife in death some years ago, and one son died in infancy. Mrs. Lilley was the sister of the late Austin and Harmon Ehle, and the one sister surviving her, Mrs. Retta Dorr of South Chicago, is the only remaining member of a family of nine children. Besides the sister, Mrs. Lilley leaves one son, Orrin, and one grandson. She lived with her son in her home on Front Street until her removal to Rest Haven last year. The funeral was held in the Kampp Chapel Thursday afternoon. Rev. Smith Thomas Ford officiating. Burial was at Bloomingdale.
