

10-1983

Mrs. Aileen Lohse, 76, of 872 Joyce Lane, Elgin, died Wednesday in Sherman Hospital, Elgin. She was born March 16, 1907 in Muscatine, Iowa, the daughter of Taylor and Hattie Thornton and had lived in Elgin since 1926. She had been employed by the J.C. Penney Company for many years before retirement. Surviving are her husband, Edward A.; 4 daughters Henrietta Van Natta of Riverside, California, Barbara Klingberg of Plato Center, Erma Eggen of Elgin and Marilyn Raus of Woodbine, Iowa; a son, David of Indianapolis, Indiana; 15 grandchildren; 3 great grandchildren and a brother Lee Thornton of Rogue River, Oregon. She was preceded by her parents. Services will be in the Laird Funeral Home. Burial will be in Lakewood Memorial Park Cemetery.

---

Aileen Lohse
Elgin

Aileen Lohse, 76, of 872 Joyce Lane, Elgin, died Wednesday in Sherman Hospital, Elgin. She was born March 16, 1907, in Muscatine, Iowa, the daughter of Taylor and Hattie Thornton, and had lived in Elgin since 1926. She had been employed by the JC Penny Co. for many years before retiring. Surviving are her husband Edward A.; four daughters, Mrs. John (Harriet Van Natta, of Riverside, Calif., Mrs. Kenneth (Barbara Klingberg, of Plato Center, Mrs. Henry (Erma) Eggum of Elgin and Mrs. Reynold (Marilyn Raus of Woodbine, Iowa; a son David of Indianapolis, Ind.; 15 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren and a brother, Lee Thornton of Rogue River, Ore. She was preceded in death by her parents. Services will be at 10 am Saturday in the Laird Funeral Home, Elgin. Burial will be in Lakewood Memorial Park Cemetery. Visitation will be after 7 pm Friday in the funeral home, and on Saturday until the time of the funeral.

No Paper name – October 13 – no year.