

Tyrus "Ty" Miles, 84, founder and chairman of Ty Miles Inc. and longtime resident of Elmhurst, died Wednesday in Bloomingdale Pavilion. Mr. Miles was a pioneer in broaching, a method used to cut metal. His company, which he established in the early 1950s in Westchester, performed metal tooling and built broaching machines. He is survived by his daughter, Janet Mueller; two sons, Tyrus and Robert; 12 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; and one brother. Visitation will be Friday from 2 to 9 p.m. in Pedersen-Ryberg Mortuary, 435 N. York Rd., Elmhurst. Services for Mr. Miles will be at 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Paul Lutheran Church, 37 Army Trail Rd., Addison. Source: The Chicago Tribune - Friday, July 28, 1995
