

9-1-1914 to July 1974

Mr. Edgar Plass, 59, died early Wednesday morning shortly after being admitted to Central DuPage Hospital. A long time resident of Glen Ellyn, he had lived in rural West Chicago the past year. Mr. Plass was a general contractor, President of Plass & Galvin, Inc., with offices in Addison. He was a veteran of World War Two and a member of American Legion Post 3, Glen Ellyn. Surviving are his widow, Irene, nee Corman; 1 son Donald (Margaret), Addison; his mother, Clara; 2 brothers, Walter and Arthur, 2 sisters, Helen Burrell and Mrs. Irene DeBrock. Funeral Mass will be said at 10 am Friday at St. John The Baptist Church, Winfield, with interment in Assumption Cemetery.