

Adolph Plote, 69 years old, prominent retired farmer of Plato Township, and former highway commissioner of that district, died at 8:10 o'clock last night at the home of his son, Fred Plote, of Burlington Township. He had been in ill health for the last five years. Mr. Plote was born in Hanover, Germany, on June 23, 1862, and at the age of three years, came to America with his parents, the family settling on a farm near Schaumburg. In 1887, he was married to Miss Dorothea Volkening of Hanover Township, and a year later, the couple moved to a farm in Plato Township. Mr. Plote had converted many acres of virgin land into profitable farms. He had tiled or drained, much slough land, and had paid for his big farm by cutting the wood upon it, and selling it to Elgin consumers, in the early days, for as low as $2 a cord. For many years he had been successfully engaged in the dairy farm business. He had exercised considerable influence in township and county politics. He retired from active farming in 1925, and had moved to Burlington, residing at the home of his son Fred for a time. Mr. Plote was a member of the St. Peter Lutheran Church of North Plato. He had served as Plato Township highway commissioner for eight years, holding that position some 20 years ago. Surviving him are the widow; six sons, Adolph C. and Herman Plote of Elgin, Gustav E. Plote of Crystal Lake, Ernst and William of Plato Township and Fred of Burlington Township; four daughters, Mrs. William Totenhagen and Mrs. Carl Jensen of Ontarioville, Mrs. Edward G. Wesemann of Elgin, and Miss Pauline Plote of Plato Township; a son, Carl Plote died at the age of 3 months; two brothers, Charles and Ernst Plote of Palatine, and a sister, Mrs. August Hackbarth of Palatine; eighteen grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive him. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home of the son, Fred, and at 2 o'clock from the St. Peter Lutheran Church, the Rev. Otto Hitzeroth officiating, with burial in the North Plato-Union Cemetery. The remains will be at the Norris Chapel, Elgin, until Saturday afternoon.

Elgin Courier-News Friday, March 18, 1932 Pg. 3

---

3 – 1932

Mr. Adolph Plote, 69 years old, prominent retired farmer of Plato Township and former highway commissioner of that district died at 8:40 o'clock last night at the home of his son, Fred Plote, of Burlington Township. He had been in ill health for the last 5 years. Mr. Plote was born in Hanover, Germany on June 23, 1862 and at the age of 3 years came to America with his parents, the family settling on a farm near Schaumburg. In 1887, he was married to Miss Dorothea Volkening of Hanover Township and a year later, the couple moved to a farm in Plato Township. Mr. Plote had converted many acres of virgin land into profitable farms. He had tiled or drained much slough land and had paid for his big farm by cutting the wood upon it and selling it to Elgin consumers in the early days for as low as $2.00 a cord. For many years, he had been successfully engaged in the dairy farming business. He had exercised considerable influence in the Township and county politics. He retired from active farming in 1925 and moved to Burlington, residing in the house of his son Fred for a time. Mr. Plote was a member of the St. Peter Lutheran Church of North Plato. He had served as a Plato Township Highway Commissioner for 8 years; holding that position some 20 years ago. Surviving him are the widow; 6 sons, Adolph C. and Herman Plote of Elgin, Gustav E. Plote of Crystal Lake, Ernst and William Plote of Plato Township and Fred of Burlington Township; 4 daughters, Mrs. William Totenhagen and Mrs. Carl Jensen of Ontarioville, Mrs. Edward Weseman of Elgin, and Miss Pauline Plote of Plato Township. A son, Carl Plote, died at the age of 3 months. 2 brothers, Charles and Ernest Plote of Palatine and a sister, Mrs. August Haekbarth of Palatine; 18 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild also survive him. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home of the son, Fred, and at 2 o'clock from the St. Peter Lutheran Church, the Rev. Otto Hitzeroth officiating with the burial in the North Plato-Union Cemetery. The remains will be at the Norris Chapel, Elgin, until Saturday noon.