

Emily C. Reardon of Roselle for 40 years. Emily C. Reardon (nee Johnson), 83, passed away Monday, Dec. 2, 2002, at her home. Mrs. Reardon was born Sept. 4, 1919, in Cumberland, England and raised in Stettler, Alberta, Canada. She was a secretary and bookkeeper for the Bloomingdale School District for several years. Emily enjoyed ceramics for more than 30 years, both as an artist and teacher. She was the beloved wife of the late John A. "Jack" Reardon, who preceded her in 2000; loving mother of Maureen (Dale) Braun of Bartlett, Jim (Cindy) Reardon of Itasca and Kathy (Michael) McDonald of St. Charles; proud grandmother of Steven, David and Shannon Braun of Bartlett, Kelly and Jeffrey Reardon of Itasca and Catie, Maggie and Ian McDonald of St. Charles; cherished daughter of the late Patrick and Elizabeth Johnson; and dear sister of twin sisters, Kathleen (the late Don) Kloepfer and Norah (the late Jack) Robertson, and the late Brian (Shirley) Johnson, Margaret (the late Frazier) Layton and her twin, James. Memorials may be made to the American Lung Association of Illinois. Friends may visit www.dailyherald.com/obits to express condolences and sign the guest book.

Source: The Daily Herald - Friday, December 6, 2002