

Miss Anna Siems, East Pleasant Street, Taken By Death

Passes Away Sunday Morning After a Short Illness

Miss Anna Siems, aged 48 years and a native of Freeport, passed away about 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning following a brief illness. Miss Siems had been suffering from gall stones and a complication of diseases. She was taken ill two weeks ago and underwent an operation last Saturday. Pneumonia developed, resulting in her death. Miss Siems was a member of the Zion's Reformed Church and was an active member of the Y P S of that congregation. She was well known throughout the community having spent her entire lifetime here and the family has the sympathy of a large number of friends. Miss Siems was born in Freeport August 7, 1873, and was a daughter of Charles and Sophia Siems, both of whom predeceased her. Miss Siems made her home at 839 East Pleasant Street; two of her brothers making their home with her. She is survived by three brothers. They are; John, Frank and Fred Siems all of Freeport. Two brothers preceded her in death. Funeral services will be held from the late home at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and at 2:30 o'clock from the Zion's Reformed Church. Rev. H. Lehman, pastor of the church, will conduct the funeral services and burial will be made in the city cemetery. Wm. Brandt will have charge of the funeral arrangements and the following will act as pallbearers: August Dilly, Fred Raih, Hugh Miley, Roy Sears, W. Derby and Fred Shoemaker.
