Accident Verdicts Given in Two Motoring Deaths

Open verdicts of accidental death were returned this morning by a coroner's jury probing two automobile fatalities in and near Elgin. One Wednesday night on Route No. 5 East of Elgin, and the other, yesterday morning on North Worth Ave. Mrs. Amanda Sporleder, 30 years old, 314 N. State Street, met death when the automobile in which she was riding with her husband Walter, and two daughters, Marilyn and Virgene, crashed into an Elgin Storage and Transfer Company truck, which was parked on Rt. 5, about 5 miles East of Elgin. Walter Sporleder said that he was driving east and saw one stalled truck owned by the transfer company on the left side of the 40 foot highway. He said he also saw the red lights of another truck ahead of him, but he was watching the truck on his left. When a short distance from the truck directly in front of him, Sporleder said he realized that it was also parked in the highway and he swerved sharply to the left and attempted to pass it, but his car was too close to the truck and crashed into the back corner of the machine. His car did not overturn.
