

Walter Sporleder
Woodstock

Walter Sporleder, 84, of Woodstock, died Sunday, July 13, in Highland Hospital Belvedere. He was born Jan. 11, 1902, in Schaumburg, the son of Frank and Mathilda Meyer Sporleder. He had been employed as an auto mechanic for Goodrow Garage in Woodstock, and Siebel Motors of Crystal Lake before retiring. Surviving are 5 daughters, Marilyn (David) Ladehoff and Jean (Gale) Barron, both of Park City, Ill., Shirley (Earl) Keller of McHenry, Patricia (Walter) Suhr of Harvard and Judy (James) Rank of Woodstock; four sons, Ronald of Harvard, Lawrence and Richard, both of Woodstock, Kenneth of Bonita Springs, Fla.; 29 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren; two brothers, Herbert of Wheaton and George of Mountain Home, Ark.; and three sisters, Charlotte Meyer of Mountain Home, Margaret Sporleder of South Elgin and Alice Benson of Elburn. Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Amanda Wille Sporleder, in 1932.