

8-1953

Funeral services were held this afternoon for Albert Stolper who passed away at his home 1221 Meyers Road, York Center, early Sunday morning. Stolper, a resident of this area since 1918, would have been 65 on the 24th of this month. He lived on a farm West of Addison for 120 years and went to school in Addison before moving to Elmhurst in 1928. In 1930 he started the Stolper Agency, an insurance firm, at 44 North York Street. In 1941, his first wife, Emma, passed away. Two and a half years ago he moved with his second wife to York Center where he resided when he died. He was owner of the Stolper Agency with his two sons Hubert and Erwin at the time of his death. He was a charter member of the Lion's Club. He is survived by his widow, Ethel May; his daughter Mrs. Norma Garlisch 447 S. York Street and the two sons. Mr. Stolper also leaves 2 brothers, Robert of Adell, Wisconsin and Herman of Fort Wayne, Indiana and 9 grandchildren. Funeral services were held at 1:30 pm today at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Addison where Stolper was a member. The Rev. Daniel Poellot officiated and interment was at Elm Lawn Cemetery.