

Walter J. `Chic' Zarndt: Graveside services for Walter J. `Chic' Zarndt, 83, of East Dundee, will be held at 1:30 p.m. today, at Dundee Township Cemetery East. Rev. Nancy Nyberg will officiate. Born Oct. 14, 1914, in Bloomingdale, Ill., the son of Fred and Lina Zarndt, he died Sunday, Feb. 15, 1998, at home. A lifelong resident of the area, he was a member of First Congregational Church of Carpentersville. He was a former Sexton of East and West Dundee Township Cemeteries retiring in 1978. He was former manager of Hicks Service Station in East Dundee, former sponsor of Zarndt Oliers Basketball Team and former manager of Babe Ruth and Little League Teams. Survivors include his wife, Violet Budney Zarndt, whom he married Nov. 7, 1938; and son, Dennis (Rosaline) Zarndt of West Dundee. He was the grandfather of Monique (Billy) Hayes, Rhonda (Tony) Long, Melissa and Christina Zarndt; great-grandfather of Brittany Hayes; and brother of Helen Rowe and Viola Erlandson. He was preceded in death by his parents; son, Michael; eight brothers; and four sisters. Memorials may be made to East Dundee Paramedics or First Congregational Church of Carpentersville. Arrangements were made by Miller Funeral Home, West Dundee. For information, (847)426-3436.

Source: The Daily Herald - Tuesday, February 17, 1998