

George Zoellick
Roselle

George Zoellick, 53, of 36 W. Glen Lake, Roselle, died unexpectedly Sunday evening at St. Joseph's Hospital where he was admitted Saturday night. Mr. Zoellick was a sales representative and a distributor for the Texaco Gas and Oil Co. He was born at Des Plaines May 7, 1889, son of Fred and Marie (Mahn) Zoellick and moved to Schaumburg Township when a young boy. He lived there until the time of his marriage to Priscilla Linnenkohl at Schaumburg, when he moved to Roselle where he resided for the past 25 years. Survivors are his widow; two daughters, Betty and Alice both at home; three sisters, Mrs. Louise Schuettler, of Des Plaines, Mrs. Mary Pasvogel of Barrington and Mrs. Hulda Frietag of Edison Park; and five brothers, Ed of Norwood Park, Herman of Palatine, Fred and Rudolph of Elgin and Richard of Bloomingdale. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother Martin. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 pm from St. Peters Lutheran Church at Schaumburg, of which he was a member, the Rev. F. A. Hertwig officiating. Burial will be at Lake Street Memorial Park. Friends may call at the Richert and Son Funeral Home, Roselle.
